SENATE PROCLAMATION NO. 416

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to recognize the African American Museum of Dallas on its 50th anniversary and to pay tribute to its founding director and chief executive officer, Dr. Harry Robinson Jr., in honor of his retirement; and

WHEREAS, Since its establishment in 1974, the African American Museum of Dallas has played a vital role in preserving, showcasing, and honoring the history, art, and culture of African Americans; with its outstanding exhibitions, collections, and educational programs, the museum has become widely respected and serves as a community hub that fosters learning and engagement; and

WHEREAS, The success of the museum is inseparable from the visionary leadership of Dr. Harry Robinson, who was instrumental in its founding; over the course of five decades, he has been a tireless champion for cultural preservation and has guided the museum in amassing world-class exhibits and collections; under his exemplary direction, the museum has achieved national prominence, and his efforts and commitment to uphold its mission have left an indelible mark on the community; and

WHEREAS, The museum's 50th anniversary and Dr. Robinson's retirement offer a fitting opportunity to reflect on his many contributions as a leader, educator, and advocate and to celebrate this important milestone in the museum's history; the institution continues to be a powerful symbol of progress and resilience, and Dr. Robinson's legacy will continue to be a source of inspiration to future generations for years to come; now, therefore, be it

PROCLAIMED, That the Senate of the State of Texas hereby commend Dr. Harry Robinson Jr. and the African American Museum of Dallas and extend to all congratulations on the museum's 50th anniversary and best wishes for the future; and, be it further PROCLAIMED, That a copy of this Proclamation be prepared for him and for the museum as an expression of esteem from the Texas Senate.
