SENATE PROCLAMATION NO. 118

In Memory
of
Carl A. Parker

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas joins in mourning Carl Allen Parker, who died March 22, 2024, at the age of 89; and

WHEREAS, An esteemed former Texas legislator, Carl Parker was born on August 6, 1934, in Port Arthur; he attended The University of Texas School of Law; while completing his law degree, he met Beverley Stiegler, whom he happily married in 1960; and

WHEREAS, Carl began his career as a lawyer in private law practices, and he entered the United States Naval Reserve as a naval lawyer and judge advocate general; during his service, he handled more than 500 claims over three and a half years and rose to the rank of commander; and

WHEREAS, A dedicated public servant, Carl will be remembered for his 34 years with the Texas Legislature; he was elected to the Texas House of Representatives and served from 1962 to 1977, and he later served in the Texas Senate from 1977 until 1995; during his tenure, Senator Parker authored and cosponsored more than 400 bills which were enacted into state law, including Texas' first industrial safety bill, the Education Reform Bill of 1984, the Consumer Protection Act, and legislation establishing Lamar University-Port Arthur; and

WHEREAS, Driven by his conviction to improve everyday life for working families, Senator Parker was an unwavering proponent of public safety, public education, workers' rights, and environmental protection; in later years, he remained active in public service through his involvement in various government committees and groups that supported education and economic development; and

WHEREAS, Carl shared a rewarding marriage with his beloved wife of 64 years, Dr. Beverley Parker; they delighted in raising their three children, Valerie, Chris, and Allen, and they were blessed with four grandchildren; a truly remarkable individual, Carl leaves a distinguished legacy of service, and his memory will be cherished forever by his many loved ones and by all who were privileged to know him; now, therefore, be it

PROCLAIMED, That the Senate of the State of Texas hereby pay tribute to the life of Carl Allen Parker and extend sincere condolences to his bereaved family; and, be it further

PROCLAIMED, That a copy of this Proclamation be prepared for his family as an expression of deepest sympathy from the Texas Senate.
