SENATE PROCLAMATION NO. 84

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to recognize George David Scott III, who is a 2024 inductee into the Texas Cowboy Hall of Fame; and

WHEREAS, The Texas Cowboy Hall of Fame honors individuals who have shown excellence in competition, business, and support of the rodeo and the Western lifestyle in Texas; Mr. Scott will be honored at this year's induction ceremony on March 28, 2024, in Fort Worth; and

WHEREAS, Dave Scott is a sixth-generation cattleman and a descendent of the Stephen F. Austin Old Three Hundred; he began his career in the family business at the age of 14, and in 1960, he became a partner with his father in Scott Livestock Commission Company, the first company of its kind located at Port City Stockyards in Houston; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Scott's outstanding leadership is demonstrated by his lifelong involvement in the livestock industry; he was previously elected president of the Texas and Southwestern Cattle Raisers' Association and still serves on its executive board; per Governor Rick Perry's appointment, Dave joined the board of directors of the Brazos River Authority; in 2011, Governor Greg Abbott renewed his appointment as the board's chairman and designated his place on the board of the Texas Farm and Ranch Land Conservation Council, which he faithfully served until January 2024; and

WHEREAS, Currently, Mr. Scott operates G. D. Scott Cattle Company, which runs cattle in three counties and directs five cow-calf and stocker operations; Dave's involvement in the industry extends to his life membership of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo, the Fort Bend County Fair Association, and the Brazoria County Cattlemen's Association, and he is a member and former director of the National Cattlemen's Beef Association; and

WHEREAS, Dave Scott has demonstrated integrity and commitment through his invaluable contributions to the Texas livestock industry and continuing his family's legacy to this Texas tradition; his steadfast dedication serves as an inspiration to his peers and source of pride for his family, whose love and support have made his efforts possible, and it is indeed fitting that citizens of the Lone Star State join in recognizing this accomplished individual; now, therefore, be it

PROCLAIMED, That the Senate of the State of Texas hereby commend George David Scott III on his induction into the Texas Cowboy Hall of Fame and extend to him best wishes for the future; and, be it further PROCLAIMED, That a copy of this Proclamation be prepared for him as an expression of esteem from the Texas Senate.
