SENATE PROCLAMATION NO. 339

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to recognize the late Max Mandel for his exceptional community leadership as a lifetime member of the Laredo Economic Development Corporation; and

WHEREAS, For 60 years the Laredo Economic Development Corporation has played an instrumental role in transforming the region into a thriving center for international commerce and industry; and

WHEREAS, Through the efforts of its dedicated members, the corporation has attracted new industries, encouraged business expansion, and supported the creation and retention of thousands of jobs; the enduring commitment of its leaders has fostered infrastructure improvements, workforce readiness, and community engagement that enhance the quality of life for area residents; and

WHEREAS, A founding member, Mr. Mandel helped establish the organization in 1966 and served as its first president; during his four decades of service, he championed efforts to diversify the local economy and expanded opportunities for industrial investment through early development initiatives, including the strategic acquisition of land along Interstate Highway 35; his foresight was pivotal in shaping the corporation's long-term success; and

WHEREAS, Max Mandel guided a period of progress and prosperity in Laredo through his visionary leadership and his extensive involvement, and it is indeed fitting that his lifetime of service to his community be honored; now, therefore, be it

PROCLAIMED, That the Senate of the State of Texas hereby pay tribute to Max Mandel for his exemplary contributions to the City of Laredo; and, be it further

PROCLAIMED, That a copy of this Proclamation be prepared in honor of his contributions as an expression of esteem from the Texas Senate.
