SENATE PROCLAMATION NO. 307

In Memory
of
Susan Phillips Dawson

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas joins the people of Austin in mourning the loss of Susan Phillips Dawson, who recently passed away at the age of 63; and

WHEREAS, Born July 20, 1963, Susan Dawson was raised in San Antonio and attended Princeton University, where she became involved as a drum major of the marching band, played rugby, and graduated with a bachelor's degree in civil engineering; she embarked on a career in structural engineering before earning a master's degree in business administration from The University of Texas at Austin; and

WHEREAS, Susan enjoyed success as an entrepreneur and cofounder of the Athens Group; she shifted her devoted efforts toward civic service, and in 2006, she founded E3 Alliance, a nonprofit dedicated to improving educational outcomes through research, data, and collaboration; and

WHEREAS, Under her leadership as president and executive director for 18 years, the organization became an influential force in strengthening education systems across Texas; and

WHEREAS, Susan was recognized with numerous honors for her dedication and positive impact, including an award for lifetime achievement from Leadership Austin, and her guidance benefited numerous organizations throughout the Austin area; and

WHEREAS, In all seasons of life, Susan selflessly advocated for others; throughout her 10-year battle with cancer, she worked with Central Texas health care leaders to improve access to cancer care for underinsured patients; her determination, her affinity for music, and her sense of adventure inspired all those around her; and

WHEREAS, Susan shared a loving marriage with her late husband, Kenneth Mannas; she found immense joy as the proud mother of Adriene and Clark and treasured her granddaughter, Sage; and

WHEREAS, A woman of compassion and strength, Susan Dawson leaves behind a legacy of service and leadership that will long be remembered with admiration and appreciation by all who were privileged to share in her life; now, therefore, be it

PROCLAIMED, That the Senate of the State of Texas hereby extend sincere condolences to the bereaved family of Susan Phillips Dawson; and, be it further PROCLAIMED, That a copy of this Proclamation be prepared for her family as an expression of deepest sympathy from the Texas Senate.

Eckhardt

_____
Member, Texas Senate

I hereby certify that the above Proclamation was adopted.

_____
Secretary of the Senate