SENATE PROCLAMATION NO. 105

WHEREAS, The Senate of the State of Texas is pleased to recognize the Texas State Historical Association, which held its 130th annual meeting in March 2026; and

WHEREAS, The Texas State Historical Association was organized and developed in 1897 to assemble a collection of documents and material detailing the history of Texas; since its establishment, the nonprofit organization has preserved and advanced scholarship through its careful research and interpretation of the people, events, and institutions that shaped our state; and

WHEREAS, The association publishes many significant books and journals and provides resources for educators, students, policymakers, and researchers; its education department offers programming for more than 50,000 Texas students yearly and for teacher training; and

WHEREAS, Through its publications, online encyclopedia, and annual meetings, the organization fosters collaboration among historians and supports efforts to preserve and strengthen public understanding of the heritage of Texas; and

WHEREAS, Over the course of the previous 130 years, the Texas State Historical Association has contributed greatly to the cultural and academic vitality of Texas, and its dedicated staff, directors, and members remain steadfast in the founding mission to foster the appreciation and teaching of the history of the Lone Star State; now, therefore, be it

PROCLAIMED, That the Senate of the State of Texas hereby commend all associated with the Texas State Historical Association and extend to them best wishes for continued success; and, be it further PROCLAIMED, That a copy of this Proclamation be prepared for the organization as an expression of esteem from the Texas Senate.

Zaffirini

_____

Member, Texas Senate

I hereby certify that the above Proclamation was adopted.

_____

Secretary of the Senate